

Legal Counsel

Position Summary

Theratechnologies is growing rapidly and seeks to hire a legal counsel reporting to the Director, Legal Affairs.

The candidate ensures carrying out the following work from Theratechnologies' Montreal office:

Key Responsibilities

- Working mainly with the medical team in connection with the drafting, negotiation, and review of various agreements, including clinical trial agreement and third-party service provider agreements
- Assisting other departments with the drafting, negotiation, and review of commercial agreements
- Providing legal opinions on Theratechnologies' business matters

Qualifications Required

- Duly called member of the Québec Bar
- Three (3) to seven (7) years of market experience in the field of life sciences law
- Fluent in both the French and English languages, spoken and written
- Knowledge of the Microsoft Office Suite

Personal Qualities Specific to Position

- Solution-driven; and Strong drafting skills and ease in communication in the English language
- Knowledge of intellectual property laws
- Knowledge of privacy laws
- Organized, able to work in a team and capacity to deliver within short timelines
- Meticulous and rigorous
- Autonomous and resourceful

Personal Qualities for all Staff

- Ability to set goals and meet deadlines
- Ability to prioritize
- Ability to generate ideas and find solutions
- Ability to work both independently and in a team
- Team spirit and desire to help each other succeed
- Versatility and flexibility

What Thera offers -

Flexible workplace

Group RRSP Program

Language Courses

Fresh Fruits

Health Insurance

Spot Award Program

Stock Option Plan

Referral Bonus Plan